WHAT SHOULD WE PACK?

DRESS CODE: We ask all participants at Steubenville San Diego to dress modestly. Clothing must cover all undergarments and midriffs. No sagging, no low-cut tops, no short shorts, no clothing with offensive language or obscene pictures, etc.

What To Bring List

- A great attitude!
- Sleeping bag or sheets and blanket
- Pillow
- Jammies
- Towel
- Toiletries (soap, shampoo, toothbrush, paste, personal care items)
- Modest clothing – light weight - as it can be hot in San Diego
- Comfortable shoes, you will be walking
- Water Bottle
- Hat or visor if you are sensitive to the sun
- Sunscreen
- Light jacket, sweater, or sweat-shirt – it gets cool at night
- Flashlight
- Bible, prayer book
- Spending money for amazing gift shop ☺ (we have sweatshirts, t-shirts, hats, books, jewelry, key-chains, CDs, Bibles, rosaries, and more. The gift shop has to be seen to be believed!) And then there are snack bar vendors for your enjoyment.
- If you are the third one in the room then bring an air mattress or cot. (Remember most rooms: 3 students per room with only 2 twin beds.)
- If your group has a lounge, apartment, or suite bring an extra air mattresses. Group leaders call us and we can give you the details.
